

FAG Discussion Questions

These questions are intended to enhance your reading experience of FAG. Please ensure you have read the novel first as they do contain spoilers.

Which characters did you sympathise with in the novel? Did you sympathise with different characters as the story progressed?

Why do you think John and Grace married?

Why do you think Keen took his life?

Did you find the sexual content uncomfortable to read? If so, can you explain why?

Who do you think chalked the word 'FAG' on Gray's study door?

Which characters in the novel are homosexual? Are there any characteristics which set them apart from those who are heterosexual in the book?

How much of the Florence 'dream' sequences do you think actually happened?

Who holds the power in Brierley's?

What is the significance of the latter part of the book being set in 1967?

Do you think Eddie recognises Michael?

How is the life of a gay person today different from that in the 1930s?